I wish to express my deep and sincere appreciation to my supervisor, Professor R. Terry Rockafellar, for his help, support, and excellent guidance in this research, and also for his sincere concern and advice in my daily life, in my entertainment, and in many other aspects throughout my study at the University of Washington.

I appreciate the counsel and support also of other members of my supervisory committee: Professor James Burke, Professor Mark Kot, Professor Paul Tseng, and Professor Zelda Zabinsky. In particular, I would like to thank Professor Tseng and Dr. Michael Patriksson for their important advice and assistance.

I would like to thank Professor Ka-Kit Tung, Deparment Chairman, for his huge help and support. I thank the faculty, students, and staff of the Department of Applied Mathematics for their help with many matters.

I also thank my close friend Supervising Engineer LeRoy Clark for his time and help on the English of my dissertation, thank Dr. Steve Wright of Argonne National Laboratory for sending me his program codes, and thank my friend Mr. Ming Yan of Chemical Engineering Department for numerical tests.

Finally, I would express my special thanks to my wife Amy Wa Chiu and my almost three years old son Alexander for their love, concern and support.
